ROBBER, WHO ESCAPED FROM JAIL IN OKLAHOMA, CAPTURED

John Mayo, Armed With Several Revolvers and Machine Guns
When Taken.

TULSA, Ok., Jan. 21.—John Mayo, daring robber who escaped from jail here early last Sunday was captured near Tulsa this morning. Mayo held up the police and a companion when he broke out, and terrorized the guests in a local hotel.

He was armed with several revolvers and a machine gun taken from the jail.

Mayo was last witness in the Hill-Kramer case. Indian murder tried in Oklahoma last year.

The capture was made without a shot being fired in an old case in the State House, which Sheriff Sanford said was a surprise. Sanford said Mayo drew his revolver, but did not open fire.

The officers left their automatic guns in the room in case Mayo should make an attempt to escape.
Mayo was taken to the jail and will be held in the State House.

Mayo had a revolver in his hand and his fingers were on an automatic pistol in the other. Sheriff Sanford said Mayo was taken to the jail and will be held in the State House.

"All right, boys, you've got me," he said. "No trouble."

Mayo was taken to the jail and will be held in the State House.

Coolidge, Receiving Minister of Diaz Government, Declares Nation Has No Imperialistic Aims.

NO WISH TO DICTATE INTERNAL AFFAIRS

Adds That United States Desires Independence of Every Central American Republic.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—President Coolidge believes that American Marines and sailors now in Nicaragua should not be kept there any longer than the returning demobilized troops. He said today that the United States has no wish to dictate the internal affairs of any Central American Republic. He said that the United States desires the independence of every Central American Republic.

Coolidge's statement, which was made in a speech to the Senate, was a direct response to a question asked by Senator Charles McNary, of Oregon, regarding the situation in Nicaragua. McNary had asked whether the United States was going to keep its Marines in Nicaragua indefinitely. Coolidge's answer was that the United States had no intention of doing so.

NEGRO DIES OF BULLET WOUND

Fourth Unresolved Murder in St. Louis This Year.

The fourth unresolved murder in the city this year was recorded with the death at 3 a. m. today of William McDonald, 47 years old, a Negro, of 214 South Garrison avenue, from a bullet wound in the back.

He was shot Wednesday night while in the back yard at 3208 Laclede avenue, where his estranged wife, Lella, lives. Police arrested his wife and another man, but they denied knowledge of the shooting and said they did not know he was in the yard. Police learned that she returned recently from a visit to Chattanooga, Tenn., where she sold for $2,000 property which she and McDonald had owned jointly.

VENDETTA THEORY IN MURDER OF BONDSMAN

New Yorker Who Signed Bill of Pickett's Had Been Surrendering Them.

By Teased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—Detectives of the homicide squad, who are investigating the mysterious killing of "Pat Joe" Bintl, "vice president" of the pickpocket trust and notorious ball hand runner, yesterday uncovered details of a strange underworld vendetta brought on by the "Bumme law."

This law makes a life sentence mandatory on a fourth conviction of felony.

Last Saturday evening two young men entered Bintl's office at 19 Second avenue, where, whenever Bintl was not in jail, he carried on a thriving business of peddling bonds to pickpockets and fences. Bintl was gazing out of the window. At the sound of the opening door he turned his head. Three shots sounded and Bintl toppled from the chair. One bullet entered the back of his neck, another lodged in the center of his back and a third split his left wrist.

A hurried inquiry by the police disclosed that Bintl had been scheduled to appear last Tuesday in General Session to be sentenced for receiving three stolen bonds, which one of his "mob" had turned over to him. Harry Abrams and Joe Glaninger, ball bond brokers, who shared the office with Bintl, were shot at the same time and about the office offered no explanation other than that members of the "mob" from which Joe had received the bonds were afraid he would give their names when he appeared in court and they killed him to seal his lips.

Rich on Spoils of Crime.

In the last 20 years Bintl had grown rich on the spoils of crime. He had a long and record. Between spells in prison he peddled ball bonds. He knew all the professional crooks; he had free access to them in jail. He got lawyers for prisoners, and at the age of 38 he was well established. Habitual offenders from all over the country knew him and when they got into trouble in New York he handled their "outside" business as a matter of right.

But last year the Bumme law went into effect and Bintl found himself confronted with a tough situation. There were several hundred of his crook friends out on bail, for which he had been well paid. Nearly every one of them had criminal records which meant, under the new laws, that when their trials came under mandatory provisions of the law, they would be sent to the penitentiary.

One by one his friends began to jump their bail and scatter to other parts. Bintl faced financial loss. His friends say he took the situation hard. It was a case either of taking his losses or surrendering, but his friends to the rescue of the Bumme law.

Canceled Bonds.

He chose the latter course and began canceling the outstanding bonds. In doing this he wrote his own death warrant, for word went out immediately that Bintl was no longer trusted by his friends and was turning them in to get long sentences. And once his "customers" were back in custody, they were denied bail, from which sources he had been receiving the money.

The friends of those whose bonds Bintl "turned in" discussed a sort of retaliation. Suddenly they dawned on them that Joe had pleaded guilty to receiving stolen property in the second degree and that because he had a past record of three felonies, he would have been liable to life imprisonment. They agreed not to bother him, but to let the "Bumme law" take its course. He could not escape a life term.

A few days before the late Judge John F. McHugh set for the last time in General Session, Bintl appeared in court. He took with him the three stolen bonds, and restitution was made in the courtroom. Then the friends of the crooks he had turned in discovered that because of this restitution a suspended sentence was to be given Bintl.

They also discovered that the crime to which he had pleaded guilty was committed in June, just a month before the life sentence provision of the new law became effective. It would not reach him. Then it was according to the story which has reached police, that the underworld sent out its gunmen to exact its revenge penalty.

ESTIMATE BOARD APPROVES $15,000 PAYROLL INCREASE

Money Would Go To Assistants To the Circuit and Prosecuting Attorneys.

The Board of Estimate and Apportionment today approved the bills now before the State Legislature providing for increases in the salaries of assistants in the offices of Circuit Attorney Sidener and Prosecuting Attorney Schwab, which would add $15,000 to the city payroll.

Sidener is asking that the salary of J. Joel Wilson, his first assistant, be increased from $4000 to $4500 a year; that seven Assistant Circuit Attorneys be increased from $3000 to $4200 a year; two clerks increased from $2400 to $3000 a year and one assistant clerk from $2100 to $2400 a year. He also asks for an additional Assistant Circuit Attorney at $4200 a year.

The request of Prosecuting Attorney Schwab was to increase two assistants from $1800 to $2500 a year and one assistant from $2200 to $3000 a year. He also asked for an additional assistant at $2500 a year. Both prosecutors, in letters to the board, said their assistants were obliged to cope with the best legal talent in the city and that they could not keep good men at the present salaries.

CHIROPRACTOR'S DEATH TO BE INVESTIGATED AT INQUEST

Physician Says He Was Called Too Late To Treat G. F. Hempler.

A coroner's inquest will be held in the death Wednesday of Gerold Frank Hempler, 35 years old, 6205 Vermont avenue, a chiropractor, for whom a physician refused to sign a death certificate on the grounds that he had been called too late to be of effective service.

Mrs. Anna Hempler, the chiropractor's wife, told police he became ill Christmas day. Last Thursday she called the physician, who advised an immediate operation. Hempler refused. Wednesday she called the physician again, and he told her Hempler was dying. Hempler died four hours later. The physician said he believed Hempler was suffering from a stomach tumor. He said all he could learn of Hempler's prior treatment was that Hempler had consulted several other South Side chiropractors.

AUSTIN, Tex., Jan. 21.—The committee of the Texas legislature which reported on the official conduct of Mrs. Miriam Ferguson, governor of that state, today issued its report. The report, which was made public in the morning, was a stinging indictment of the governor's official conduct. It charged that she had usurped the authority of the legislature and the courts, and that she had committed numerous acts of malfeasance and misfeasance. The report also charged that she had committed acts of fraud and embezzlement, and that she had committed acts of adultery and incest. The report concluded that the governor's conduct was a "disgrace" to the state and that she should be removed from office.

PROFESSIONAL BASEBALL ON SUNDAY VIOLATES LABOR LAW

Supreme Court of Virginia, However, Emphasize Legality of Amateur Sports on Sabbath.

RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 21.—Professional baseball cannot be played in Virginia on Sunday, the state supreme court of appeals has declared by a three-to-two ruling.

The court upheld the decision of lower courts under which each player that participated in an exhibition game, May 17, 1925, in Portsmouth between the Richmond and Portsmouth Virginia League clubs was fined $5 for violation of the Sunday labor law.

The majority opinion cited several authorities declaring labor in connection with trades or callings and emphasized the legality of amateur sports on Sunday. The dissenting judges claimed the players were not at the time laboring in their calling, but were enjoying a game of sport in which they and all other persons had a right to engage on Sunday.

SATISFACTORY RESULTS ARE THE BEST PROOF

Says Well-Known and Popular Auburn Avenue Lady When Asked Recently About the Merits of Popular Medicine—Declares It is the Best She Has Ever Found.

Unusual merit alone is responsible for the tremendous success of a certain popular medicine, for many known as Herb Juice, and the ever-increasing sales, the many expressions of praise and recommendation, are ample proof of its effectiveness in relieving ailments for which it is daily recommended. Mrs. J. Sweeney, popular and life-long resident, who lives at 1247 Auburn Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., is among the latest to testify to the unusual merits of this medicine.

MRS. J. SWEENEY
"Your medicine is truly a wonderful remedy, and the prompt and effective action it produces is very beneficial as well as gratifying." Continuing further with her statement, given in a recent interview with the special representative from the Herb Juice Laboratory, Mrs. Sweeney said: "I can tell after taking the first few doses that it benefits in a very natural and substantial way. Before long, my symptoms and ailments were the common ones which cause so much annoyance and suffering and many times I felt I was going on suffering time without trying to obtain relief. And I was no exception to the rule. I was just dragging along, poor health was my lot. I hardly ever enjoyed a pleasant moment due to trouble brought on by constipation. My stomach was so upset that I could not eat a hearty meal. I had no desire for food and what little I did eat would sour and cause a light, bloated feeling in my stomach. After reading so much about your Herb Juice, formerly known as Herb Juice, I decided I

SMITH EXCLUDED: MUST DEFEND SELF BEFORE COMMITTEE

The House committee on the ethics of the House of Representatives, which is now holding hearings on the charges against Senator Smith, has decided to exclude him from the committee's jurisdiction.

The committee, which is headed by Chairman Clegg, has decided that Smith should be allowed to defend himself before the committee, but that he should not be allowed to call witnesses or to cross-examine witnesses. This decision was made after a long and heated debate in the committee.

Smith, who is currently in the custody of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has been charged with various offenses, including the receipt of bribes and the obstruction of justice. He has been charged with these offenses in connection with his alleged involvement in the Teapot Dome scandal.

Smith's lawyers have argued that he should be allowed to call witnesses and to cross-examine witnesses, but the committee has refused to do so. The committee has stated that it is not its function to conduct a trial, but rather to investigate the charges against Smith.

Smith has been charged with receiving bribes from the oil companies in exchange for securing favorable contracts for them. He has also been charged with obstructing justice by covering up his involvement in the scandal.

Smith's exclusion from the committee's jurisdiction has been a major development in the case. It has raised questions about the fairness of the proceedings and about the committee's authority to conduct such investigations.

BUSINESS WOMAN AND
MOTHER OF TEN DIESMrs. Katie Ern, 83, Disproved Theory Raising Family and Trade Success Went Mix.Mrs. Katie K. Ern, who for almost 40 years disproved the theory that a woman cannot be a success in business and the mother of a large family, died yesterday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Alvina Ern, 6150 Plymouth avenue, of the infirmities of age. She was 83 years old.From 1875 until 1919, though the mother of 10 children, Mrs.
Ern conducted a wholesale dry goods business, dealing in supplies for street peddlers and small stores, and was recognized as a unique figure in the wholesale dry goods business.Born in Germany in 1844, she came to St. Louis alone when 18 years old and lived here with a brother. In 1863 she married John Ern, a river-boat captain, and 12 years later, with 10 children on her hands, opened her dry goods business. For 10 years her store was on Third street, near Clark street;
she moved to Third street and Lucas avenue, then to Broadway and Lucas, where she remained until 1919, when she sold out and retired.She was 76 then and, her husband having been dead nine years, she moved from her home at 2521 Madison avenue to the home of her daughter. Her funeral will be Sunday afternoon from the home, with burial in Valhalla cemetery. Burial Mrs. Gosson, three other daughters survive.

Senator's Daughter to Wed.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The engagement of Senator May's 15-year-old daughter, of Senator and Mrs. John E. Kendrick of Wyoming, to Maj. Hubert R. Harmon, United States Army, is announced.

Will the Nicaraguan Fuse Explode a Bomb in Mexico?

"ARE SINISTER FORCES DRAWING us nearer and nearer to a war with Mexico—a war which not more than a handful of people in either country would possibly want?"

This startling question has been asked on the floor of Congress during the discussion of our recent armed intervention in Nicaragua, and it lurks between the lines in much of the editorial comment on that move. For, these observers point out, "behind our Nicaraguan problem looms our Mexican problem which is packed with dynamite, and developments in Nicaragua," they say, "may be the fuse that will explode that dynamite."

President Coolidge tells of "the most conclusive evidence" that Mexico has been supplying the revolutionists in Nicaragua with arms and munitions; and Secretary Kellogg informs Congress that Bolshevik leaders are using Mexico and Latin America as bases of activity against the United States.

The Mexican Government denies any offensive action against the interests of the United States, but "the extreme gravity of the Latin-American crisis," says the New York World, "can no longer be doubted."

Certainly every American citizen will wish to read the leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for Jan. 22d explaining all aspects of this critical situation.

Triumphant Canton "Talks Turkey" to the Powers

THE TROUBLE IS AS CLOSE TO HIM AS HIS OWN COAT TAILS (Depicting the U.S. position in the Latin American situation.)

"THE POWERS that are sympathetic toward China and really wish to see China united will extend recognition without our asking for it, and without seeking privileges in return," declares Gen. Chiang Kai-shek, the successful Cantonese leader, thus emphasizing the political strength and prestige that follow in the train of military successes.

The new British policy of liberality and tolerance toward China, and the "considerable progress" made by Japan in cultivating China's friendship during recent months, are significant phases in the discussion of the whole situation by the Chinese, British and Japanese press as presented in an important article in THE LITERARY DIGEST for this week.

Secretary Kellogg's Bombshell in Chile and Peru

A "DIPLOMATIC BOMBHELL" was exploded by Secretary of State Kellogg, it is said, when in an effort to terminate the dispute between Chile and Peru over the provinces of Tacna and Arica he proposed that they cede the contested territory to Bolivia.

Repercussions from all three of the interested countries show the question still in an acute stage. Bolivia is enthusiastic; Chile is conditionally favorable; Peru is largely cold or adverse. The caustic debate includes suggestions of ulterior motives on the part of the United States as prompting the proposal. Read the article in this week's LITERARY DIGEST in which this lively international problem is actively discussed by the Latin-American editors.

And then Grandma Danced

WE were quite alarmed about mother. She wouldn't eat, was terribly constipated, bilious, and seemed to be fading fast. We thought it due entirely to her 86 years of age. But a neighbor brought over a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and it was really remarkable how she picked right up and now she can even dance around with her grandchildren. Now we are never without Syrup Pepsin in the house. (Name and address furnished upon request.)

WILLIAM O'HARE ACQUITTED ON CHARGE OF ROBBERY

Had Been Accused With 2 Others of $25 Holdup in Restaurant on North Broadway.

William O'Hare, 22 years old, of 257 South Jefferson avenue, was acquitted of robbery yesterday afternoon by a jury in Circuit Judge Hogan's court.

O'Hare was charged with two others, Andrew Costa and Tony DeLuna, with robbing Gus Mangler, proprietor of a restaurant at 2101 North Broadway, of $25 last Aug. 10. He was seen outside the restaurant at the time of the robbery by William B. Cunningham, of 2524 North Ninth street, who testified that O'Hare told him that the robbers had stolen his automobile which was parked around the corner.

They went together to report to the police. O'Hare stated in his defense that he had gone to the restaurant to meet a friend, and his statement was corroborated by Costa and DeLuna who will be tried later.

Papal Munio Visits League Officer

GENOVA, Jan. 21.—In view of the Vatican's announced determination to strike for the promotion of all movements for collaboration and peace among nations, great interest was created today when the Right Rev. Pietro Di Maria, the new papal nuncio at Rome, visited the League of Nations.

The nuncio was accompanied by three priests. The visit was interpreted as indicating the friendly interest of the Vatican in the League.

WARRANT ISSUED AGAINST MISSING ASSISTANT CASHIER

C. L. Wilson, Wagner Electric Employee, Charged With Embezzlement of $1000.

A warrant charging embezzlement of $1000 from the Wagner Electric Corporation was issued today at Clayton against Cameron L. Wilson, 24-year-old assistant cashier who disappeared Jan. 16, and in whose accounts auditors last Monday reported a shortage of $1000.

The warrant followed the complaint of J. E. Shields, an accountant of the Wagner Electric Co., who, with other officials, complained to justice of the disappearance of the money.

Wagner Electric officials said the name of R. O. Kunkard, vice president of the First National Bank, Wallston, is indorsed on the warrant. This is indicative that the sum mentioned in the warrant, which Wilson is alleged to have embezzled on Oct. 23 last, passed through this bank.

The young assistant cashier, who deserted his bride, Mrs. Edna Wilson, and their home at 5444 North Euclid avenue, and has not been heard from since, is accused of juggling the corporation's bank accounts. By this method he covered up his pilfered monies.

CHURCHILL SAYS FASCISM RENDERS SERVICE TO WORLD

He said to have been deprived of a last protective measure against malignant political tumors, and every Socialist chief in every country must feel himself more certain in resisting dangerous and nebulous forces.

British Foreign Policy.

"The policy of the British Government in Europe followed by the American Chamberlain, the Foreign Secretary, is very simple, in fact so simple that any Minister, or ## member of Parliament finds little difficulty in explaining it either to a foreigner or to a public meeting of nations. Our policy is that Great Britain, France, Italy, and Germany must work together for the rebirth of Europe and for the healing of the wounds of the war.

"Antagonism among these great races could cause ruin in Europe. The great war combatants now must unite to heal and rebuild and, the same as almost loyal friends who traverse a dangerous road.

They must maintain contact, one with the other, and in such manner that their interests become more intimate and that all thought of another fratricidal war disappear absolutely from their minds."

"Shore Dinners" Are Possible Many Miles From the Ocean. Occasionally Change the Menu for Dressed-Up Tea Family Food.

With dulse being washed and dried, it is a most nutritious and easily prepared food. It is usually made into a soup, but it can be used in many other ways. It is a fair proportion of milk difference is practically the same that the dish is a little more substantial. Oyster soup, for example, is usually served when the meal to follow is more hearty such as a holiday dinner. It is usually made with a fair proportion of milk difference is practically the same that the dish is a little more substantial.

While formerly toast was only to stoke folks now it is adaptable to all meals. Following are recipes for various uses of toast indicated.

French Toast. If you have a loaf of stale bread, cut it in slices, not as thin as you would for the table, but two and add a teaspoonful of oil. Have the pan on a low fire and dip with fork enough bread into egg batter to cover both sides. Griddle the temperature you do for a cake; toast a nice brown and when done remove to a plate in even.

French Cheese Toast. Bake French toast in the oven, dipping bread in egg and browning in hot fat. Put in a pan. Cover and with cheese seasoned with pepper, and toast under the flame until the cheese is melted and begins to crisp.

Apple Toast. Cut toast in narrow strips, the apples, adding sugar and meat. Pile the strips of toast in a pan and pour apple sauce over each piece. Then arrange tender sticks of fruit on each side.

Oven Toast. Slice bread inch thick. Bake in a slow oven. Long slow cooking renders toast especially digestible for children.

Celery Ham Toast. Wash and scrape celery and cut into pieces about 1 inch. Allow five or six pieces for each slice of toast. Spread with finely minced celery and ham. Arrange on hot plates. Toast under broiler.

SOMETHING DIFFERENT BANANAS SHOULD BE INDULGED IN BY YOUNG AND OLD

The banana was considered a rare luxury not so very long ago, while today it is fast becoming an everyday food, vying in popularity with old stand-bys.

This fruit, cultivated in the tropics, is not only a fruit, but a nourishing vegetable as well, that lends itself easily to cooking in any number of ways. Fried bananas with bacon or sausage is a delicious morsel for a hearty breakfast, and is palatable enough to put the most ill-tempered person in good humor.

The way to make it is as follows: Allow one banana for each person. Cut each banana in half, crosswise, then lengthwise. Roll in flour. Then cook in the hot bacon or sausage fat until browned and turn. Serve round the bacon or sausage.

Escaloped bananas are exceptionally good. All you need are four bananas, a quarter cup of melted butter, the juice of a lemon, sugar mixed with cinnamon, and a cup of sifted bread crumbs. Stir butter into bread crumbs. Sprinkle the bottom of a baking dish with crumbs. Cover with sliced bananas and sprinkle with a little sugar mixed with cinnamon. Repeat the layers of buttered crumbs and bananas leaving the last layer of crumbs. Add the lemon juice and bake for 25 minutes. Serve hot. This is enough for eight persons.

Two Banana Desserts. Take a banana and raisin croquette. This is a delicious combination and is a favorite of many. Yes, really, this simple recipe can be made good use of in the preparation of this palatable dessert. All you need are some bananas, say four, some melted butter, one-third cup of soft butter, one-half cup of sugar, and a half cup of raisins. Cut the bananas into two-inch cubes. Then cut out the centers to make hollow receptacles. Dip the cubes in melted butter and brown slightly in the oven, turning as needed. Cook seedless raisins in boiling water until tender. Cut bananas into cubes and add to raisins with sugar. Cover and let cook until hot throughout, shaking the dish occasionally. Place the cubes on a serving dish and fill with bananas and raisins. Pour the syrup over the whole and serve hot. This is enough to serve six persons.

Baked bananas are also very satisfying and nourishing. Peel and scrape six bananas, then cut them in halves lengthwise. Place them in a buttered baking dish and sprinkle with sugar. (Six teaspoons of brown sugar.) Pour the water over bananas (6 tablespoons of water) then bake in a moderate oven.

Take one-half pound Swiss cheese, one-half teaspoon salt, one-half teaspoon paprika, one-fourth pound English walnut meats and one-fourth cup butter. Chop cheese and nuts, mix well with seasonings and softened butter. Spread on thin slices of white or egg bread and cover with another slice. Wrap in wax paper.

GRANT'S RELATIVES MAKE TRUST PROPOSAL

Sisters of Defaulting Realty Man to Assign Property to Receiver.

An agreement by which Edward A. Wagner and William H. Bell, brothers-in-law and business associates of Edward W. Grant in the Wagner-Grant-Bell Realty Co., at their wives, who are Grant's sisters, will be relieved of their personal part in the receivership proceedings against the collapsed realty company, was reported to Circuit Judge Hall today by Carl Dubinsky, attorney for the petitioners.

In the suit, filed in behalf of Leon Margolis and Harry Rubin, two of Grant's late trust customers, Mr. and Mrs. Wagner and Mr. and Mrs. Bell were named as defendants with Grant and the realty company, and their property was tied up by an injunction. Dubinsky reported today that they had agreed to place in trust the Bell home, in which, he said, the company has a 1000 interest, and three parcels of realty assigned by Grant to Mrs. Wagner Dec. 31. This was the day before Grant's flight from St. Louis, which was followed by exposure of his frauds, causing losses estimated at $750,000 to $1,000,000, and by his confession, return and indictment. The company, Dubinsky said, has an interest in the realty conveyed to Mrs. Wagner.

When this trust agreement is executed, Dubinsky said, he will consent to relieve the Wagners and the Bells from the receivership. The receivership suit, under which W. H. Holmes is acting as temporary receiver, was laid over until next Friday.
